RE: APPLICATION OF WELCH TITLED: "SEMICONDUCTOR DEVICES IN COMPENSATED SEMICONDUCTOR";
SERIAL NO: 10/603,334;
FILE DATE 06/26/03
ART UNIT: 2811;
EXAMINER: LOKE.

RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION

Dear Sir;

I am in receipt of an Office Action dated 10/05/04,
regarding the identified Application.

Important as regards this Response, the Examiner has not required a Terminal Disclaimer for Claim 9. In the following, Claim 9 limitations are included in Claim 7, and Claim 7 and
New Claims 28- 31 are further pursued in this effort.

To provide insight as to a reason for the approach to response herein, it is disclosed that Applicant has a PCT Application on File, PCT/US03/29675, Filed 19 SEP 2003 Titled:

ECONOMICAL AND VERY SIMPLE TO FABRICATE SINGLE DEVICE
EQUIVALENT TO CMOS, AND OTHER SEMICONDUCTOR DEVICES IN COMPENSATED SEMICONDUCTOR

The Claims therein are substantially similar to those in the present Application. The Present Application, however, Claimed Priority back to 1994 hence a Patent Issued therefrom will Expire in 2014. The PCT has Priority based only upon the Present Application, 10/603,334 Filed 06/26/2003. It is noted that the 334 Application is a CIP of Patent 6,624,493, but that it Issued without requirement of a Terminal Disclaimer.
In view of the foregoing, Applicant is therefore entering the PCT Application into the US National Stage with Claims identified by the Examiner as not requiring Terminal Disclaimer in view of Patent 6,624,493, (eg. Claims 1-4). The reason for doing so is to obtain an extended Period of Validity for said Claims. Claims subject to Terminal Disclaimer, and a few others in the 334 Application, are further pursued herein.

Further, it is noted that no Terminal Disclaimer was required for Claim 9.

CERTIFICATE OF MAILING

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT THIS TRANSMITTAL IS BEING DEPOSITED WITH THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE WITH SUFFICIENT POSTAGE FOR EXPRESS MAIL IN AN ENVELOPE ADDRESSED TO THE COMMISSIONER FOR PATENTS, BOX: 1450, ALEXANDRIA VA. 22313-1450 ON THE DATE INDICATED BELOW.
